Thomson's Responses and Objections to Direct Action Plaintiffs' First and Second Sets of Requests for Production

Dear Kathy:

In advance of our meet and confer tomorrow about Thomson Consumer's and Thomson SA's responses and objections to direct-action plaintiffs' first and second set of requests for production, we highlight four particular topics to focus our discussion.

First, Thomson SA raises both general and specific objections based on the French blocking statute. We appreciate your sending us the March 7, 2008, letter earlier today along with the unofficial translation. We would like to discuss when you learned of the letter, your interpretation of the statute, as well as what information or categories of information you intend to produce and not to produce based on your interpretation of that statute.

Second, Thomson Consumer and Thomson SA have indicated that they will not produce documents responsive to numerous requests regarding the relationship between Thomson entities (Requests 46-50, 55-57 from DAPs' First Set of Requests for Production to Thomson Consumer; Requests 48-52, 57-49 from DAPs' First Set of Requests for Production to Thomson SA; Requests 9-13, 18-19 from DAPs' Second Set of Requests for Production to Thomson Consumer and Thomson SA). We would like to understand your position on why you will not produce information responsive to these requests.

Third, Thomson Consumer and Thomson SA have both objected to requests for information regarding submissions to and documents from foreign investigative bodies. We wish to understand what you intend to produce and not to produce in reliance on these objections, and to understand the legal basis for your objections.

Fourth, we wish to understand whether Thomson Consumer and Thomson SA plan to collect documents responsive to the requests to which they have objected and merely withhold those documents, or whether it is your position that you will not undertake any search for documents responsive to those requests in the first place.

Although we do not necessarily intend to limit our discussion to only these topics, we believe that beginning our discussion with these topics would be productive. We look forward to speaking with you tomorrow at 3:00 P.M. Eastern time.

Best regards,

/s/ Craig Benson
